COURSE DESCRIPTION

Application of microeconomic principles to the study of the behavior of workers and managers in organizations. Analyzes how to select and retain productive workers; allocate decision-making authority, design jobs, and manage teamwork; and evaluate and reward employee performance.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Students will learn how to apply microeconomic principles to address the problems of organizational design and employee selection, retention, and motivation.

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIAL

In addition, you will be assigned selected cases and articles from the scholarly literature and popular press. See the course outline for details.

ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING POLICY

Performance will be evaluated on the basis of class participation, teamwork assignments, a midterm exam, and a final exam, weighted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Weight</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>class participation</td>
<td>.10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>teamwork</td>
<td>.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>midterm exam</td>
<td>.30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>final exam</td>
<td>.30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You will be ranked relative to other students in the class according to your overall performance and grades assigned based on your class rank. I will use the plus/minus system to make distinctions within grade categories.

Class Attendance

Regular class attendance is expected. UGA academic regulations authorize a professor to withdraw students with excessive absences and I will exercise that authority. Also, it will be very difficult to earn credit for class participation if you are not there.

Exam Dates & Policies

The final exam is scheduled for Friday, May 4 at 330p.

Failure to take the final exam at the scheduled time will result in a grade of zero. There is one and only one exception to this rule: if you have a documented family emergency or personal illness. In this case, you must resolve the situation as promptly as possible.

ELECTRONIC DEVICE POLICY

Cell phones must be muted or turned off and stowed away during class. Laptops may be used in class, but only for purposes directly related to the course (e.g., taking notes and viewing course materials.)
UNIVERSITY HONOR CODE & ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY
As a University of Georgia student, you have agreed to abide by the University’s academic honesty policy, “A Culture of Honesty,” and the Student Honor Code. All academic work must meet the standards described in “A Culture of Honesty” found at: www.uga.edu/honesty. Lack of knowledge of the academic honesty policy is not a reasonable explanation for a violation. Questions related to course assignments and the academic honesty policy should be directed to the instructor.

CHANGES TO THE SYLLABUS
The syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations announced to the class by the instructor may be necessary.
